

7) During a period of economic downturn, which markets are key to maintaining work and employment in your area?

8) What can the collective bargaining parties do now to position labor and management to take advantage of the markets identified in Question 7?

Labor Representative

Print name

Signature

Date

Management Representative

Print name

Signature

Date